

Study Guide for Friday, Sept. 12 Quiz

1. Study the homework sheet on Latin/Greek Prefixes and Roots. They are the following: cent -, dis-, milli-, pre-, ped-, hemi-, sub-, ex-, anti-, re-, act-, aud-, cede/ceed/cess, ceive/cept/cap, clud/clus.

2. Be able to use commas correctly in the comma homework using Latin/Greek prefixes and roots. Here is an example of a sentence you might need to punctuate:

Centipedes spiders potato bugs and ants are all excluded from the reception.

NOTE: Extra credit if you can identify noun/verb

3. Be able to use commas and capitalization correctly in last night's homework, specifically #1, #9, #12, #13, #14, #19, #27.
